

The Incubation Centre of Shivam College of Education has been established to promote innovation, creativity, and entrepreneurship among students, faculty, and the local community.

It provides a supportive ecosystem for developing education all tools, community-based projects, and startups in the field of teacher education, social development, and digital learning.

Objective:-

1. To foster an entrepreneurial mindset among students and teacher trainees.
2. To support innovative projects related to education, ICT, community engagement, and social welfare.
3. To provide mentoring, training, and resources for idea development and implementation.
4. To collaborate with local industries, NGOs, and government agencies for social innovation.
5. To encourage research - based educational innovations and startup culture in the college environment.

Facilities & support:-

- Idea Development cell for brain storming and innovation.
- Workshops and seminars on entrepreneurship, digital skills and educational innovation.
- Mentorship by faculty, alumni, and external experts.
- Networking opportunities with incubation hubs and government start up initiatives.
- Access to ICT lab and learning resources for prototype or project development.

Target Beneficiaries:-

- B.Ed. and D.El.Ed. students interested in educational innovation.
- Faculty members involved in research and community projects.
- Alumni and local youth with social enterprise ideas.

Expected Outcomes:-

- Development of innovative teaching-learning models and materials.
- Establishment of student – led social or educational startups.
- Promotion of skill development, self- reliance ,and Atanirbhar initiatives.

Future Plans:-

- To register under Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) by the ministry of Education's Innovation Cell.
- To collaborate with startup India, Skill India, and NITI Aayog's, Atal Innovation Mission.
- To organize annual innovation challenges for students and local educators.